CALL FOR PAPERS

The Department of Economics and Finance of the University of Bari is organizing the conference Equal Chances: Equality of Opportunity and Social Mobility Around the World, which will take place in Bari on December 14th and 15th, 2018.

The purpose of the conference is to bring together scholars from different disciplines to share their current research on issues related to the measurement of the intergenerational transmission of advantages.

We invite submissions on any theoretical and/or empirical papers relating to:

Inequality of opportunity

Intergenerational mobility

Intergenerational transmission of education

Intergenerational transmission of social status

The invited keynote speakers are:

Marc Fleurbaey
Princeton University
&
John Roemer
Yale University

During the conference the first version of the website www.equalchances.org will be launched.

Please submit your paper in pdf format by email to info@equalchances.org by September 15st, 2018. Decisions are expected to be notified by October 1st, 2018. There is no conference fee, but presenters will be expected to cover their own travel and accommodation costs.

Organizing committee: Paolo Brunori (University of Florence & University of Bari), Francisco Ferreira (World Bank), Vito Peragine (University of Bari), Patrizio Piraino (University of Cape Town), Laura Serlenga (University of Bari), Moris Triventi (University of Trento), Roy Van der Weide (World Bank).
